Residents' Parking In Bellingdon Rd Spur

- Success at Last
- Councillors' pressure has paid off

Residents' parking has been a nightmare for finally been agreed for residents, so this has got Bellingdon Road spur (the cul-de-sac bit of Chesham Town Council for helping the process along." Liberal Democrat Councillor Alan Bacon is delighted to have helped residents get the first residents' parking scheme in Chesham. Alan said, "Parking here has

Increased Parking at Chiltern Hills Academy (formerly Chesham Park)

Your Lib Dem councillors may help to relieve some welcomed an application of the difficulties arising to create a little more from on-street parking in on-site parking at the Chartridge Lane and new Academy in Chartridge Lane. Penn Avenue," commented Lib Dem Councillor Tina Michael.

A Few Unblocked Drains

You may have noticed that many drain covers are blocked all over Chesham and beyond, often with weeds growing out of them. Well, we are pleased to report another minor success. Your Liberal Democrat councillors have been agitating for years to get the drain covers cleared in Park Road and further up the hill in Chartridge Lane. After all, blocked drains are not doing their job, and if there is really heavy rain they can contribute to flooding at the bottom of the hill. Anyway, at long last the County Council has managed to clear them, except one or two where there were parked cars in the way. So, it can be done

Shame it takes so long!
