Tim Farron MP

Hello,

The result of the European referendum has left the country facing an uncertain future.

The Liberal Democrats continue to believe that Britain is better off in Europe but our immediate priority is to make sure local organisations don't pay the price of a rushed Brexit.

To help us do that, we're gathering the views of experts like you from across the country.

Please take a minute to complete this survey and let me know what impact you think Brexit might have on your organisation in the months and years to come.

Thank you,
